Philosophy

The care of and interest in the individual student is one of the most important aspects that differentiates Pittwater House from other educational institutions. Differentiating between the genders and understanding the needs of each student is a core aim of Pittwater House Schooling.

Providing the students with an academic, relevant, global, 21st-century educational experience that encourages the use of technology and critical thinking skills is central to the Pittwater House service.

Honesty and integrity are the first of the Pittwater House Core Values and need to be reflected in staff attitude towards all areas of the school. Confidentiality of records and information, both personal and corporate, is of paramount importance. In all dealings with parents, students, staff and members of the public, your approach needs to reflect the high standard and reputation of the School and your actions need to be in accordance with relevant laws.

Child Protection

Pittwater House is a child safe environment. The safety, protection and well-being of all students and other children and young persons involved in activities at the School are of fundamental importance. The School actively promotes the safety and well-being of all students, and all school staff are committed to protecting students from abuse or harm in the school environment in accordance with their legal obligations, including the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations. The School's Child Protection Policy is available to all existing staff via the policy handbook or upon request.
